

QUEENSLAND INSTITUTE OF EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH (QIER) RESEARCH STUDENT AWARD 2002

As part of its charter QIER is committed to the promotion, support and fostering of research. The Institute in establishing the QIER Research Student Award seeks to stimulate and encourage quality student research in education.

QIER will present a Research Student Award for educational research not previously presented and undertaken within the last three (3) years. Applicants will submit a 6000 to 8000 word paper related to any aspect of their research. The award will consist of a grant of $250, a certificate of acknowledgement and the publication of a reviewed paper in the Qld Journal of Educational Research (QJER).

Assessment will involve members of the QIER Executive and external referees as considered necessary.

Eligibility:

Applicants must

- be members (or have applied for membership) of the QIER. Membership forms are available from the QIER website or the Secretary;
- have undertaken their educational research whilst in a program of study at a university in Queensland;
- have their applications endorsed by their research supervisor (as provided for on the application form); and
- not have previously received this award.

Criteria:

Subject to the submission conditions for applications to be eligible, the papers will be assessed on the following criteria:

- originality
- significance or value ie. contribution to educational theory and/or practice
- quality of the research approach ie. design and methods
- presentation

Applications

Application forms are available from the QIER website or the Secretary.

Completed application forms (including endorsement) must be forwarded to the Secretary QIER by November 30th, 2002.
